A prayer (Northumbria Community)

May the holy and life-giving God teach us to reverence all his works, praise him in all we do, and live in his image and to his glory. Amen.

A message from Rev Sue McWhinney

Now that we are returning to church, do please say hello after the service. And of course you are also welcome to phone or email me if you need any help, or would just like to talk about Christian faith. God bless you and keep you safe, Revd Sue.

Notices

Coronavirus precautions

We are pleased to welcome you back into church for both private prayer on Wednesday afternoons and our Parish Communion on a Sunday morning.

- Please do not come to church if you have tested positive for Covid-19 or have potential symptoms.
- Please sit on your own or with members of your extended household bubble only, in the pews indicated.
- Face coverings must be worn unless you have a medical reason for not wearing one. You can get advice about this from our church wardens.
- You must follow physical distancing using our one-way system and our hygiene guidelines.
- Hand sanitiser will be available for you to use.

Online services

Our weekly online services will continue for the foreseeable future along with our dial-in services.

Wednesday home group

Our Wednesday home group, which has been meeting online recently, is taking a break until September.

Recruiting our new vicar

Applications closed earlier this week for anybody wanting to join us as our new vicar at St John's. The applications will now be considered and candidates will be invited for interviews in September. We will keep you updated as the process goes on.

Pudsey Community Project

Donations of food can be dropped off at the Church Hall Monday's and Thursday's 10am-12pm.
