'Reimagining the Church' Webinar on Thursday 3rd

September from 10.30am-12pm, with some excellent speakers: two bishops (Sophie Jelley & Phillip North) and Robin Gamble, who will be reflecting on the Acts of the Apostles and Lockdown. Places are free, and open to everyone. It will help us all to think about growing our church. To book a place, send an email to comms.training@leeds.anglican.org

A message from Rev Sue McWhinney

Please say hello after the service, especially if you are new, and do feel free to phone or email me if you would like to talk about anything or would like to ask for prayer. Revd Sue.

Notices

Coronavirus precautions

We are pleased to welcome you back into church for our Parish Communion on a Sunday morning.

- Please do not come to church if you have tested positive for Covid-19 or have potential symptoms.
- Please sit on your own or with members of your extended household bubble only, in the pews indicated.
- Face coverings must be worn unless you have a medical reason for not wearing one. You can get advice about this from our church wardens.
- You must follow physical distancing using our one-way system and our hygiene guidelines.
- Hand sanitiser will be available for you to use.

Online services

Our weekly online services will continue for the foreseeable future along with our dial-in services.

Prayer in Church

The church is now not open for prayer on Wednesday afternoons.

Wednesday home group

Our Wednesday home group, which has been meeting online recently, is taking a break until September.

Pudsey Community Project

Donations of food can be dropped off at the Church Hall Monday's and Thursday's 10am-12pm. Apart from the 7th September as the hall is closed, so no food collection that morning.
